TURKISH BLUFF CALLED.

At a Cabinet Meeting, last night called to consider the Near East situation, the intention to reject the Turkish demands was confirmed. It was decided that the British troops remain in Constantinople and that the policy of General Sir Charles Harington shall be supported.

RUBBER SHAREHOLDERS' ASSOCIATION.

In a speech at the Annual Meeting of the Rubber Shareholders' Association today, Mr. Zorn, the Chairman, welcomed the restrictive measures as ensuring the stabilisation of prices. He declared, however, that the real goal was the increase of consumption. To this end, he said, the Association was planning extensive propaganda. Mr. Zorn advocated that efforts should be made to induce the Colonial Government to hand over a proportion of the Export duty for research propaganda and the development of the industry generally.

Mr. Zorn pointed out that a big demand for latex was likely not only in connection with the new process for paper-making, but in various other directions. A chemist inventor and manufacturer was now experimenting in view of the commercial application of rubber latex. Some of these experiments were promising to be as important as the new method of making paper, concluded the speaker.

THE AMERICAN ELECTIONS.

Mr. Miller, the Republican Governor of New York, admits defeat by the Democrat, Mr. Smith. According to early reports from Chicago, the Democrats are leading the Republicans by two to one in districts at present held by Republicans.

Hitherto the Republicans have not gained a single seat at the expense of the Democrats in the House of Representatives; whilst the Democrats have won twenty-eight, but a gain of nearly eighty is necessary to upset Republican control of the Senate. The returns show the Democrat gain, which is offset by the notable defeat of Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska.

Mr. Frederick Kent Copeland, Democrat, has been elected Senator for New York State. He defeated the Republican candidate, Senator William M. Calder.

All the women candidates in the various constituencies have been defeated. Mr. Smith's majority in New York was over 400,000. So far this is the most spectacular feature of the elections.

PRISONER ASSAULTED.

A Revenue Officer Fined.

An unusual assault case came up for hearing at the Magistracy yesterday. The defendant was Ching Po, a Revenue Officer, who pummeled a prisoner, named Chan King, in the Court precincts, because he refused a charge of smoking opium and thus caused the case to be adjourned. The proceedings arose over a report of one of the court ushers.

Mr. N. L. Smith, Superintendent of Imports and Exports, and Major C. Wilson were present in Court when Mr. E. W. Hamilton heard the case.

The usher testified to seeing about ten blows being given to the complainant, and overbearing the Revenue Officer say that the assault was due to the complainant's denial of the charge against him.

The complainant said that a fellow prisoner sitting in the lobby with him was punished by the defendant for picking up a cigarette end. The punishment was a number of blows with the fist, and considering it excessive he intervened and said to the defendant "Don't hit him, please." The defendant told witness not to be impertinent and began to hit him.

The complainant, however, did not mention the alleged reference to the trial of the opium case, until the Magistrate questioned him.

Telling the defendant that it was clear he hit the complainant, the Magistrate said: "You remember that a policeman or a Revenue Officer is in a very responsible position. Therefore I shall punish you more severely than I would an ordinary man. Your proper course you know perfectly well. If the man does anything wrong you should report it to Mr. Watt, your superior. I am not satisfied, however, that you beat him because he did not plead guilty, otherwise I would have given you three months' imprisonment straightaway."

The defendant was fined one month's pay, $25.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

BRITISH TRADE IN CHINA.

A San Francisco correspondent states some striking first-hand information was detailed in San Francisco upon the arrival there of Colonel Charles E. Davis, special correspondent of the Times Union of Albany, New York State, who had just concluded making an intensive study of conditions in China and Japan. He intimated that American business had lost ground in China, while the Britisher, due to the backing of his Government, was now in full command of the Central Chinese situation. The United States, through its representatives in China, Colonel Davis stated, had failed to grasp the opportunities offered Uncle Sam, with the result that Great Britain had taken every advantage offered her, and by backing the Central Government had actually crowded the American business man completely out of business. This revelation is all the more remarkable as it was only recently that a commission representing several leading American Chambers of Commerce returned to the mainland, after touring the Orient in quest of commercial connections, and reported that the American business men had firmly established themselves in that part of the world.

NO TARIFFS.

The one outstanding feature of Mr. Bonar Law's speech, a precis of which was cabled through Reuters yesterday, was the declaration of his attitude to that old, old problem of Tariff Reform. It says much for the wisdom of Mr. Bonar Law that he has seen fit to assert that he is opposed to any fundamental change in the present fiscal system, but we fancy that his explanation for such a change does not ring very true. He calmly tells the electorate that the times have vastly changed since the Tariff Reformers first made their proposals, and that the need for reform has gone. The time is inopportune, he says. Quite so. It is interesting, in view of such a specious excuse as Mr. Bonar Law has given, to remind ourselves that when the Tariff Reformers first brought out their scheme they based their arguments on the fact that times had changed since the days of Cobden and Bright and the fiscal policy should change as well. Therefore, if Mr. Bonar Law is right, we must have gone back in conditions to the time of those old Free Trade champions. Not a very probable happening.

We fancy there will be something akin to wild rejoicing in the ranks of the Free Traders at Home over the fact that Mr. Law has been convinced that Tariff Reform is not needed in order to bring back times of prosperity to the English manufacturers. Trade and commerce need the greatest amount of freedom possible in these days of worldwide industrial depression, and it is distinctly encouraging to learn that the leading Conservatives have been convinced of that fact. We would assert that in all times and under all conditions, the freedom of trade is essential to its well-being. The protection of certain "key industries" at Home since the war has not helped those industries to do anything beyond charge high prices for the goods they turn out: it has not improved trade and it never could. Britain is seeking to regain her old-time position in the markets of the world, her shipping industry is sadly in need of a stimulus, and it would be little short of disastrous if she were to embark on the false policy of trying to improve home industrial conditions by permitting manufacturers to make a greater profit at the expense of the home consumer. That is all that Tariff Reform could ever do.

Perhaps it is over-late in the day for us to argue anew the old points of the controversy. We have always failed to understand the Tariff Reformers' supposed logic and we hold the hope that the majority of men at Home have also failed to understand it. With Labour solid against fiscal reform, with the Liberals solid, too; and with Mr. Bonar Law a new convert, there seems every reason to hope that the cry for protective tariffs has been heard for the last time. The Free Traders have, apparently, won what they should never have had to fight for, namely, the very principle on which successful trade must always be based.

The Spread of Malaria.

Dr. Koch raised some important points in his questions at the Sanitary Board meeting with regard to the incidence of malaria in this Colony. It seems clear that the disease is extending rather than otherwise, but the question is not an easy one with which to deal. Dr. Pearce's statement was illuminating on a number of points, and his reference to the transmission of the disease from infected Chinese touched a point which is deserving of fuller investigation. Our hope is that the matter will be further dealt with, so that, if possible, something may be done to prevent anything like a serious outbreak. Dr. Pearce's emphasis of the strong advisability of using mosquito nets, especially in the outlying districts, should be heeded by residents, but the adoption, on anything like a general scale, of gauze screens for houses appears somewhat unnecessary and hardly likely to be put into effect here. Dr. Koch spoke very much to the point in suggesting that steps should be taken to shield Chinese workers, and others engaged on building operations, from the disease, and in this connection the thought occurs to us whether contractors are sufficiently careful to see that stagnant water is not allowed to gather on sites where work is going on. The matter is undoubtedly a difficult one, for we can hardly expect mosquito nets to be provided for workers sleeping in huts on building sites; but the seriousness of the problem calls for some hard thinking and the application of measures to keep the disease within limits.

A Post Office Problem.

We referred yesterday to the record Christmas parcel mail for Home, and the crowds that besieged the Post Office during Monday and Tuesday, this resulting in much inconvenience for the public and a great deal of work at very high pressure for the temporarily inadequate staff. There is, apparently, no reserve of trained men on which the Post Office authorities can draw when a crisis requires, as can be done in many other countries. We consider, however, that a considerable amount of the delay and congestion attending the despatch of these Christmas parcels might have been avoided had the authorities only exercised some forethought. We do not suggest that the Post Office officials could have predicted the "rush" of the first two days of this week, but there is always extra work to be expected when these special mails are being closed, and some form of preparation to meet all possible eventualities could well have been inaugurated. We refer particularly to the arrival of the Home mail late on Saturday, which, we understand, was not dealt with until Monday, thus adding to the volume of work which the staff had to tackle at the beginning of the week. It would have been a simple arrangement to have opened the Post Office on Sunday in order to deal with the mail from Home, and have everything clear for the Christmas parcel mail the following day. It is quite usual in Singapore, for instance, to have the Post Office open for a period on Sunday, when a Home mail arrives too late for a Saturday delivery. This is done, as much in the way of a concession to the public (saving them a day's wait) as for the convenience of the postal workers, who, we believe, are not in the least inclined to shirk the extra work this involves on a normal day of rest when they realise how much strain it relieves them of on the day following. Something of the kind might be introduced here with advantage both to the man-in-the-street and the Post Office itself. Whilst saying so much, we should like to add a tribute to the manner in which the postal staff faced a period of hard, concentrated work. They did splendidly in the circumstances.

ROUND THE TOWN.

(By "Gadabout.")

Hongkong's one of those places where it never rains but what it pours. It doesn't matter whether it's annual sports meetings, school prize givings, shows at the Theatre Royal, company meetings, or anything else; they all come in a bunch. It's the same with charities. We've just had the annual bazaar at the Government House in aid of the M.C.L., on Saturday it's Poppy Day, and in a month or five weeks the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be on us again. The M.C.L. bazaar on Saturday was a great success. Whether Hongkong mothers neglect their kids or not, Hongkong's women showed on Saturday that they can be very busy when they like. The bery of beauty which looked after the feeds department on the front lawn certainly did put their backs into the job. Hats off to them. Of course, there were one or two little mistakes. One lady took quite a lot of persuading that a gentleman who put down three bucks for five teas at fifty cents each was not looking to get four dubs change, but, make those little details; the ladies are to be congratulated on their efforts. It was a jolly little afternoon. The silhouettes gallery was rather great fun. The portly gentleman with a cigar couldn't be mistaken; the newspaper men see his face and figure often at company meetings. The bewigged legal lights also were easy and so were half a dozen others. Mr. C. H. Thorne, the Commissioner of Chinese Customs, got most people's thumbs up, and only two competitors were able to guess all sixteen right.

Talking about charities, I wonder why the organisers of some of the local bazaars don't take a little more care in choosing the wares that are to be offered for sale. Mere man was fairly well represented at the M.C.L. affair, but there was little on the stalls to take his fancy, and I think even more money would have been taken if they had catered for the needs of the male a little more. I remember going to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bazaar last year and it was even worse there; all you could get were toys. A fellow and I went along with dollars in our pockets and the inclination to spend them. We bought a ticket or two with expectations of winning a motor-car and I believe we had some guesses at how many peas there were in a bottle, but after that we were at a loose end to know how to get rid of our cash. My pal rashly went in for a raffle and succeeded in winning a huge toy ship. He lugged this round for twenty minutes or so, blushed and looked very foolish whenever he met anybody he knew, and in the end tried to bribe me with a beer to give it to some small boy. He managed to get rid of it at last, and then we beat it. That toy business would be all right if everybody was married and had half a dozen kids, but for those of us who aren't, it's not much in our line. The average fellow at a bazaar doesn't mind forking out for a wallet, or a cigarette case, or a pipe or some other masculine trifle, even if he's got a dozen at home already, but, take it from me, he thinks twice before he lets himself in for a rubber doll or a toy train.

It's rather appropriate having a charity on Armistice Day for the express purpose of helping distressed ex-Servicemen. Armistice Day certainly seems the right time for the Poppy Drive, but in Hongkong there's the drawback that, with the exception of the poor unfortunate newspaper men and the individuals in half-a-dozen other luckless occupations, on Armistice Day nobody goes to the office. Many stay at home altogether or else perhaps go right away from Hongkong for the week-end. That's rather a good scheme of the Easmaiter, back for ever. The Victorian decorating the tables at their dinner with poppies purchased on behalf of the fund. The auctions at the various clubs and at the Easma dinner, too, ought to rake in quite a pile of dubs. It'll quite remind us of the old days at Home to have fair maidens pinning buttonholes in our coats again, only, you young griffins, be careful now. There's no joking with the sweet young things of Hongkong. No, Horace, certainly not; it's not done. And another thing to remember; if something particularly attractive in the flap, per line marks you down and you're wondering how you can create an impression with a cash balance of minus something and a

TO-MORROW'S BOXING

A Good Programme.

As will be seen by a advertising columns, an excellent programme of boxing contests is to take place at the V.R.C. to-morrow at the main event will be between "Battling Key," the Champion from the Straits, and Stoker Petty Officer Morgan. This should be a fine match. "Battling Key" called the Telegraph office this morning stated that everything was ready for to-morrow's fight. He added that he rather sprained his right hand a recent exhibition bout with Flynn; and he was suffering somewhat from injury, but he intended to his best to win. He leaves Singapore on Tuesday.

TO-MORROW'S INTERPORT CRICKET.

Great Interest in the coming Test

With the approach of the Interport Cricket match between Hongkong and Shanghai which will commence at eleven o'clock to-morrow, interest in cricket is at a high pitch, and there some speculation as to which team the local team has of giving the contest against the strong eleven from the northport. Of the twenty previous encounters, Shanghai has won and Hongkong nine, a match being drawn. Local supporters, of course, hope that Hongkong will draw level this time and winning the fixture, though it is realised that there is strenuous tussle ahead of us. With "glorious uncertainty" of cricket, however, there is also saying definitely that one of the other side has a much better chance of securing the victory. The game can be counted on and public interest in the contest the match is sure to be sustained right up to the end.

shroff round every other corner, don't worry; you can sign a chit.

The boys are rung up well for the fifty lure of the telegraph's so anxious to give a very week. Every mail brings a batch of football enthusiasts' efforts to tell what a score (so teams are going to do on) next Saturday afternoon. I do know whether they've had to get an extra man on selling steps at the Post Office yet, but the Telegraph staff are expecting to be made O.B.E.'s for helping to raise the revenue. One of the efforts that came in a wonderful. Two birds last week succeeded in sending in 10 coupons with every one of the ten matches forecasted was. Almost as difficult as giving 'em all right; but there are any booby prizes. One small boy had a go and took the trouble till the competition editor (who's half a dozen other things besides) that he was only nine years old. Wonderful, but he who got through the coupons wasn't torped. Nine or ninety, make it: there are no handicaps.

Hongkong leads and Kowloon follows, up to be the order of the day, but, hush! Kowloon's going to set the pace this time. A little bird whispered the other day that if the powers that be'll give their permission auburn's going to give a real live cabaret. Little, round, scottish tables, refreshment music and singing, and dancing girls, and all that kind of thing—that's the idea. I believe Manila and Shanghai and other places out East have 'em and now somebody with a bit of enterprise is willing to try the cabaret here. No doubt a few old Mrs. Gandies will at first raise their hands with horror at the very thought, but those people can't old a progressive Colony back for ever. The Victorian Era's been dead and buried a long time, the world's going round, and we've got to go round with it. The idea, so I'm told, is to engage some girls from Manila. A fellow who wants a dance and who hasn't a partner pays ten or twenty cents, or some such small amount, for a girl to go round with, and as the Filipinos are supposed to be pretty good in the light fantastic line, he's going to improve his dancing as well as get his fun. There are plenty of fellows here who dance and want to dance, but they've no partners. A kind Samaritan's come along who's going to provide 'em. The whole scheme seems a bit in the air just now, but some more soon.

FOOTBALL TIPS.

Saturday's Games.

(BY "QUIZ").

The matches for Saturday are as follows—

Division I.

King's v. Club—Sookunpoo "A" ground.
Durban v. R.G.A.—St. Joseph's ground.
Ambrose v. Kowloon—Navy "B" ground.
South China v. Police—S.C.A. ground.

Division II.

King's v. Durban—Sookunpoo "A" ground.
South China "A" v. South China "B"—S.C.A. ground.
Kowloon v. St. Joseph's—Kowloon ground.
University v. Fleet Auxiliaries—Navy "B" ground.
United A.C. v. Hawkins—Navy "A" ground.

Warders v. R.G.A.—St. Joseph's ground.
Police v. Ambrose—Club ground.

Kick-off Div. I at 4.15 p.m.; Div. II at 2.45 p.m.
In the matches played last week that between the King's and Tamar quite upset the forecast, while the United and Durban Reserves result came as a surprise. The First Division games were very even.

The Senior Games.

The matches this week should attract a large gathering, for there are some really good games expected. That at Sookunpoo between the King's and Tamar will be worth watching; and while the Club are confident in maintaining their position at the head of the League, they will find that the King's will be all out to retrieve their position which they have lost in their last two matches. Stewart and Gerrard will still be absent from the Club side, which should include McPhail this week. The King's have made changes in their side on the last two occasions and have lost three points.

Another good game should be seen on the adjoining ground at Sookunpoo, where the Tamar and Despatch are due to meet. The latter are unknown in Hongkong, but rumour says they are a well-balanced side and, with the Tamar's present form, a win for the depot ship is expected.

On St. Joseph's ground, the Durban receive their old opponents, the R.G.A. In the shield competition last season, the R.G.A. beat the Durban by a goal in the second round. The soldiers can field quite a good team and should give the sailors a good run this week, with the match ending in a draw.

Ambrose and Kowloon meet on Navy "A" ground, and with the form shown by the latter recently, they should take the points. The Ambrose are a good side and are never beaten until the final whistle sounds.

South China receive the Police, and judging by past records, the Police should obtain their first point in the League this week. South China never seem to have any luck when playing against the Police, as on several occasions they have had most of the play but have finished behind in goals. The Police team are very weak this season, for, although fielding a good side, they cannot get together.

On the Navy "A" ground, the Hawkins receive the Carlisle, and although little has been heard of the latter ship in Northern football, a good game is expected and on the form shown by the Hawkins last week they should take the points.

The Junior Contests.

In the Junior games, that on the South China ground between the two Reserve teams will attract the largest crowd this week, and the "B" should be much too strong for the "A". King's Reserves meet the Durban Reserves on the Garrison ground and the King's should maintain their unbeaten record and take the points.

Kowloon receive St. Joseph's on their new ground and arrangements have been made to kick off in this match at 4 p.m. St. Joseph's are playing a strong game this season and should win this match.

University should defeat the Fleet Auxiliaries. United A.C. on their showing of last week should prove too good for the Hawkins Reserves, and R.G.A. should win against the Warders. The match between the Ambrose and the Police on the Club ground should end in a draw.

INTERPORT GOLF.

Hongkong Beat Manila at Fanling.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Hongkong had an easy victory over the Manila golf team at Fanling yesterday, both in the singles and foursomes, winning by 11 points to nil. The weather was perfect and the course was in beautiful condition. Sir Wm. Rees-Davies took a great interest in the matches and presided at the teams' tiffin table.

The Hongkong men did not have things all their own way. Manila put up a stiff tussle and the home team had to play up all they knew, but the advantage was with the Hongkong team because they were familiar with the course. Several local men went round under booby. B. D. Crawford Morgan finished the course in the singles in 77, in the afternoon H.R. Buckland and A.B. Stewart went round in approximately 76 and E.J.R. Mitchell did the 18 holes in 77.

A.B. Stewart played J. Grieve in the singles. The Hongkong man failed badly at the tee on several occasions, but his iron shots and putting were superior to that of the Manila player. Grieve played a consistent game but at the turn was two down. The game finished at the 16th hole, the Hongkong player being three up and two to play.

J.H.R. Mason, who played H.R. Buckland, opened well, being two up at the end of the third hole. Then Buckland began to catch up and at the sixth hole the two men were all square. At the turn the Hongkong player was leading by two points. The next two holes went to Mason, but at the end of the 14th Buckland was again two up. Buckland halved the next three, which gave him the game.

The game between T. W. Hill and J. D. Gibbs was a keen tussle. Hill took the first hole, but the next three went to Gibbs. The Hongkong man recovered and at the end of the ninth the two men were all square. On the home-ward journey it was a stiff fight, ending in the home player's favour two up and one to play.

B. D. C. Morgan and E. J. Nell were a well matched pair, but after the turn the Hongkong man, by taking the 10th and 11th, halving the 13th, and taking the 14th and 15th, won by the large margin of four up and three to play.

The Manila player managed to hold his own against the Hongkong man in the Cumming-Todd game. Captain Cumming did well in the first nine holes, being three up half way round, but the Manila man recovered after the turn and succeeded in halving the match.

E. J. R. Mitchell, who played a brilliant game both in the morning and afternoon, met H. Manderfeld in the singles. Winning the first three holes, Mitchell did the first nine in one over bogey and won at the 17th, three up and one to play.

Stewart and Buckland gained an easy win over Grieve and Mason, the game finishing at the 14th hole, seven up. The Hongkong pair's putting was very fine, while Grieve and Mason played an erratic game and failed badly on the greens.

Hill, who, with Morgan, met Gibbs and Nell, played a splendid game in the afternoon, his driving, approaching and putting were remarkably fine. Morgan did not come up to his morning's form and the Manila men's driving and recovering were none too good.

Nell had a bit of bad luck at the Gap by slicing into a swamp. In endeavouring to recover he got into a fearful mess. Hongkong were three up at the turn and three of the next four holes going to them, the game ended at the 13th, six up.

The game between Cumming and Mitchell and Todd and Manderfeld was won by Mitchell. His all-round play was good and some of his puts were exceptionally fine. Mitchell did the first nine in one under bogey and at the 15th, where the game ended, 4 and 3, he was two under bogey. Cumming was not up to his usual form and although Manderfeld and Todd brought off some quite brilliant shots at times, they were erratic in their play. It was an easy victory for the Hongkong pair right from the first few holes.

Details of the play are as follows—

Singles.

H. B. Buckland 1 J. H. R. Mason (2 & 1)

DAY BY DAY.

In an affray at Stanley Street last night a Chinese was stabbed following a quarrel which he had with another man over a debt. The injured man, who was stabbed in the back, was removed to the Government Civil Hospital, while his alleged assailant was arrested.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, ten cases of Sun Yat-sen's military banknotes remaining in the Treasury and fifty cases sent down from the North River were publicly burned on the plot of ground in front of the office of the Superintendent of Customs, at Canton.

Invitations to attend the dinner being given by the Ex-Active Service Men's Association have been accepted by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, the Commodore, Col. Davy (Acting General Officer Commanding) and several other prominent personalities.

For snatching a felt hat from a Chinese merchant in Bonham Street, a Chinese boy was ordered to receive twelve strokes with the rattan, at the Police Court this morning. The hat was not recovered, apparently having been passed over to an accomplice during the chase that followed the theft.

A telegram dispatched by Sun Yat-sen, purporting to have received the endorsement of various parties concerned, asked the Canton authorities not to interfere in the internal affairs of Fukien province, adding that satisfaction had been secured by the natives in the appointment of Lung Sum to the Civil Governorship. The telegram requested the Expeditionary Army sent by Chan King-ming should not enter Fukien.

An official party headed by H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, after being entertained by the Chinese Unofficial members of the Council at the Kamling Hotel at West Point last night, visited the Tai Ping Theatre where a play in which Mei Lan-fang, the great Chinese actor, appeared, was being staged. There were about 50 persons in the party including Mrs. Severn, Mrs. Enilock, the Colonial Secretary (Mr. A.G.M. Fletcher), Mr. Fletcher, Mr. C. McI. Messer, and practically all the members of the Council and the Government.

PIECE GOODS' CONTRACTS.

Dispute Causes Suspension of Business.

A dispute is in progress between foreign firms and Chinese piece goods dealers relative to the form of the existing contract for the purchase and delivery of merchandise, to certain conditions of which the latter are objecting. The question is principally one of interest charged by the foreign firms on the goods cleared after due date, it being held by the dealers concerned that this is too high. Another point on which the dealers insist is that the date of delivery should be as stated in the contract, but as arrivals may be delayed by circumstances over which the shipping companies have no control, this is regarded as impracticable. Pending approval of a new form of agreement, orders are all being suspended by the dealers. In the meantime the dispute has reached a stage in which it has been found necessary to get the representatives of the two Chambers of Commerce into communication with each other in an endeavour to settle all points at issue.

ASSAULT CASE.

Defendant Fails to Appear.

As the defendant in a case of assault did not turn up this morning to stand his trial, Mr. J. R. Wood ordered the confiscation of the bail of $10 deposited with the Inspector and advised the complainant in the case, a piece-goods dealer, that he could apply for a warrant for the defaulter's arrest if he wished to press the prosecution.

The facts, as given by the Inspector, were that the piece-goods dealer went to a brothel in Woosung Street yesterday to collect an account from one of the inmates, but his visit was resented by a man who was with the girl at the time, and an altercation followed. The dealer was hit on the temple with a teacup and in the ensuing struggle both men staggered out into the street.

Apparently with a view to impressing on the Magistrate the enormity of the offence that had been committed, the dealer was still wearing his blood-stained jacket.

REVENUE OFFICER CHARGED.

An Extraordinary Case.

Before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Police Court this morning, Ku Tak, a Chinese Revenue Officer, was charged with being in possession of a Smith and Weston revolver of the pattern used by the police and also with being in possession of 25 rounds of ammunition contained in a belt. Mr. W. B. Hind defended. According to Sub-Inspector Pin-cot, who prosecuted in the case, there was an order issued early this year that all arms should be removed from the custody of Chinese revenue officers, and that none of them should possess even private revolvers. This order was amended to the extent of allowing only five men to possess revolvers, and one of them was the defendant in the case. However, at a police raid conducted after the receipt of information, on the defendant's house in Des Voeux Road Central, a dagger was discovered by the police. Subsequently, on another occasion, a revolver was handed over to the searchers which the defendant claimed as having been given to him by his son.

His Worship:—Is there any suggestion that he is leading a double life?

The Inspector:—There is no proof of that.

His Worship:—It is an extraordinary case altogether. I will remand the case until next Thursday. Bail at $2,000.

Mr. Hind:—Could not your Worship make it less—say $1,000?

His Worship:—No, but I could make it $1,000 and $1,000 in two securities of $500 each to be approved by the Captain superintendent of Police.

ALLEGED FORGERY.

Chinese Bank Clerk Charged.

Yuen Chik-chuen, described as belonging to a good family in Hongkong, was charged before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Police Court this morning, for having, whilst employed as a clerk at the Bank of Canton, forged on October 17th, two valuable securities, to wit a dividend and bonus warrant of the Bank of Canton; that he uttered the said forged document; and that he received, by virtue of the said document, a sum of $619.33. Mr. Bennett appeared for the prosecution and asked for a remand to prepare his case. The Magistrate asked how much the defendant was alleged to have got away with, and Mr. Bennett replied that the amount roughly came up to $2,000. They were only able to prove the present charge at the moment. It was possible a bigger amount might have been involved. The defendant was remanded on bail of $5,000.
